

2023-24 Bill Estimator

This form is intended to help families estimate their out-of-pocket costs for the 2023-24 academic year. This is offered only as a tool for families to plan ahead; it does not represent an official billing statement and does not guarantee a particular balance or refund due. Official bills will be released on the dates indicated on <https://bursar.caltech.edu/accounts/ugaccounts>.

Do not use this form if:

- You are not planning to enroll in all three terms (fall, winter and spring)
- You are planning to enroll in less than 36 units in any term
- You are participating in a study abroad program
- You are a graduate student

Estimated Billing Information

Your estimated billing information for the 2023-24 academic year is below. Estimated balances do not reflect a remaining balance from previous terms or additional charges to your account.

Health insurance subsidies will be added to qualifying students' accounts after the first official billing statement is released. If you are expecting to receive an insurance subsidy but it hasn't been awarded yet, you can receive a more accurate estimated balance by unchecking the insurance plan boxes in the "Cost Information" section of this form.

- General Deposit: A one-time deposit charged for your first registration. This deposit will be refunded upon departure from Caltech after full payment of all outstanding bills.
- Balance Due: Estimated amount that you will need to pay Caltech for a term.
- Refund Due: Estimated amount of excess financial aid that you can receive from Caltech.
